

G Tower Hotel - REVIEW - Kuala Lumpur

The G Tower Hotel greatly surprised me. It was extremely clean, it was energetic and cosy. Everything seemed fresh and built from quality materials. My IPOD was able to be docked into a player, and the hotel also provided a 'Pillow menu' which was a fantastic idea. The breakfast is the only aspect that needs to be improved, but even then, the wonderful restaurant and balcony walk distracted me from the food. Overall, an extremely pleasing stay, one I would strongly recommend to all: couples, families and solo travellers.
