FLAVOUR GALORE

Brunch & Munch, G Village at Desa Pandan

If you are a fan of bacon for breakfast, or just pork in general, then Brunch & Munch at G Village is a must-visit. Tucked in the quaint new-neighbourhood inside Desa Pandan, this new establishment is the perfect champagne brunch spot for weekend outings with your mates.

As mentioned, pork is the star here, used to dish up creative twists on comfort food like eggs benedict cooked on the stone grill, juicy pork burger, and caramelised pork belly. This all-day brunch menu makes up the first half of the name, Brunch & Munch.

The 'Munch' aspect focuses on lighter bites that are meant to complement its rustic, casual bar, featuring great cocktails created by award-winning mixologists from View Rooftop Bar at G Tower Hotel.

Personally, we recommend the scrumptious brunch menu on a weekend, paired with some Chandon bubbly to celebrate the end of a wonderful week. Bon appetit!
