Brunch & Munch

Ever wonder how you could enjoy ribs without having to feast through an entire slab? Brunch & Munch has got that covered with their serving of ribs, prepared to feed a single mouth and satisfy it at the same time. The exterior is charred and caramelized to a sweet and smoky sensation, while the meat is fulsome and falls off the bone with a tug from the teeth.

TIPS

There's ample parking space in the basement.

Brunch & Munch

This utmost refreshing salad is the perfect dish for those who prefer things on the light and mild side. A myriad of fresh greens mixed with sliced quail eggs and poached eggs, drenched in a hollow dressing to give it its moisture, but not overwhelming its natural flavours; it's a salad that will have you heading home grinning from ear to ear.

You're probably jaded from the overwhelming sight of Eggs Benedict already, but what you're facing here is on a different field. Using their own special concoction of sauce, seasoning, and herbs, the Eggs Benedict here gives off a buttery and garlicky flavour. Pair that with some smoky bacon strips, creamy spinach, and fluffy buns; you will have no regrets.

TIPS

There's ample parking space in the basement.

The burger arises here at Brunch & Munch! Served playfully on a wooden board with a side of seasoned wedges, the Pork Burger here tastes as tall as it looks. The whole combination of the succulent patty, molten cheese, a sunny side up, and greens turns into one subtle explosion of refreshing, savoury, and sweet flavours when in contact with your taste buds; enough said.
