This specially constructed Ramadhan buffet is a fusion of Malaysian states' staples. Be awed by their much extensive array of dishes hailing from the Northern, Southern, and of course Central regions of the country. Not only does the flavours skew from one end to the other of the spectrum, you're looking at main courses like rice, Kambing Golek, Ayam Pansuh, Ikan Masak Lemak; snacks and appetizers like Sup Tulang, Roti Jala, Apam Balik; to a little bit of western delights like salads and pastries. The verdict? Your taste buds will be host to immense flavours and textures.
